Volunteer at the 2011 Frys.com Open Golf Tournament and earn:

$125 in Golf Spectator Passes and
$250 for Morgan Hill Math!

AIM's Morgan Hill Math is looking for volunteers for the Frys.com Open Golf Tournament, October 5th–9th at CordeValle in San Martin.

Benefits to Morgan Hill Math AIM will donate $250 to our Math Mardi Gras and MATHCOUNTS programs for every volunteer that we recruit!

We will be working on the golf course in a fun, hi-tech area called SHOTLINK, using a palm-pilot-like device and tripod-mounted lasers to measure how far the ball has been hit. Or you may choose a different volunteer job, such as hospitality or delivering supplies.

Benefits to you Volunteers attend the tournament free, even on days when they are not working. You also receive a week-long tournament pass for a friend or family member.

Volunteers are required to work a minimum of 3 shifts, 2 of them on a weekday. They must wear khaki pants and purchase a uniform—two shirts and a visor, cap or straw hat—for $50.

Sign up now The best spots go fast, so sign up soon!

- Go to www.frysopengolf.com/volunteer and click on "Volunteer Sign Up" (at the bottom).
- At the bottom of the data entry screen, you will be asked "Are you volunteering on behalf of an organization, club or group?" Please key in "AIM Morgan Hill Math."
- Email mainpeople@charter.net to let Lori Mains know you are volunteering.

Thank you for supporting our mission of providing Morgan Hill students with fun and challenging math experiences!
